Budget Cutting Drive Starts in Congress

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The budget-cutting drive has picked up momentum on Capitol Hill.

The Senate Armed Services Committee Thursday chopped off $771 million in Defense Department requests for aircraft, missiles and other military hardware. But it went along with the House in voting an extra $363.7 million— which the administration doesn't want and probably won't spend—to speed development of the RS70 reconnaissance strike bomber.

Thus after the committee was finished, the military procurement bill totaled only $407.3 million less than the administration asked.

The House, despite objections of Postmaster General J. Edward Day and a barrage of letters and telegrams from postal employees, voted a reduction Thursday of $91,964,000 in appropriations for the Post Office Department. Day warned it might mean a reduction in postal service, including no more Saturday deliveries.

Judgment Is Against Congressman

NEW YORK (AP)—A jury has made a libel award of $211,500 to a Harlem widow against Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. for calling her "a bag woman (graff collector) for the Police Department."

"The king is dead," the plaintiff, Esther James, 66, exclaimed as the verdict was read.

"Adam Clayton Powell is dead," the Negro domestic cried. "Now he will just have to keep his mouth shut. He's dead in Harlem."

Powell, 54, a Democratic congressman from the Harlem section of New York since 1944, was not available for comment. His office in Washington said he plans to appeal the verdict.

Mrs. James, who had sued Powell for $1 million, said she will donate part of her award to charity.

The verdict Thursday was by an all-white jury of seven men and five women in State Supreme Court.

Powell accused Mrs. James in a television interview in 1960 while he was campaigning against what he charged was "organized gambling and police corruption."

Mrs. James denied at the trial that she ever collected graft from Harlem gamblers for policemen.

2 Policemen Divide $100 Reward Here

Two Hope policemen this morning divided a $100 reward posted by the newspapers for arrest and conviction of the persons robbing local news vending machines last month.

Officers Wallace C. Martin and James R. Rowe received $50 checks each from Hope Star, which acted as spokesman for the publishers. Contributions were: Hope Star $50; Jacks Newsstand, agent for Arkansas Gazette, $25; and Texarkana Gazette, $25.

Arkansas Gazette and Texarkana Gazette vending machines were raided last month, and on March 18 police reported the arrest of five juveniles. All pleaded guilty in Juvenile Court. One is expected to be sentenced to the Industrial School for Boys, and the other four were placed on one year's probation.

Although its own stands were untouched last month Hope Star organized the $100 reward pool because one of its expensive vending machines was stolen about a year ago, and the case never was solved. The thieves got only $1.50, but badly damaged the machine.

The 12th annual Pre-Easter meeting will begin at the Presbyterian Church Sunday with service at 10:35 a.m. and 5 p.m. Services will be held next week from Monday through Friday at 7:30 p.m. The annual Candlelight Communion Service will be held on Thursday night.

The choir under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Gossnell will present special music at all of the services.

A cordial invitation is extended by the elders and deacons, who are sponsoring the meeting, to come and enjoy these services.

DeQueen Election

DE QUEEN, Ark. (AP)—A special election will be held here May 7 on a bond issue to finance a plant for the Rubber Corporation of America. The plant would cost about $280,000, with Sevier County furnishing $153,000 of that amount. About 200 persons would be employed in the manufacture of basketball shoes.

Russian Lunik 10,000 Miles From the Moon

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's Lunik 4 flew within 10,000 miles of the moon today, Tass reported.

The Soviet news agency said the 3,130-pound moon probe was about 226,800 miles from the earth at 6 p.m. Moscow time—Friday morning U.S. time. The moon is about 238,854 miles from the earth.

A communique reported radio communications with the space probe good.

The statement did not say when the last radio and telemetric reports had been received, nor did it give any information on Lunik's mission.

The Soviets said the speed of Lunik 4, launched Tuesday at more than 18,000 miles an hour, had slowed to about 6,700 miles an hour. This is due to the earth's gravitational pull.

"Experiments and observations which are being carried out aboard the Lunik 4 station are necessary for the realization of further flights under the program worked out for the exploration of the moon," Tass said.

The Soviet press said Lunik 4 was being controlled by a scientific center in the Crimea.

Unskilled Labor to Get Less, Less

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Only five per cent of the nation's jobs will be in the unskilled category within the next seven years — and youths who drop out of school will have to compete for those with students who graduated, a state official says.

Marvin Taylor, youth service specialist for the Arkansas Employment Security Division, told a civic club Thursday that job opportunities for drop-outs will be down to virtually nothing by 1970. The unskilled category will be the only one in which those who don't finish school can compete, he said.

Taylor said the unemployment rate for the age group under 22 is already 2 1/2 times more than for other groups.

The ESD is trying to entice the youths back into school if possible, get part-time employment for them so they can continue their studies or help them find steady employment, he said.

Some youths drop out of school to take a waiting job, Taylor said, but the job usually "plays out" after a short while.

Bids Submitted

LONOKE, Ark. (AP)—A low bid of $492,350 has been submitted by Bracy Development Company, Inc. for construction of low-rent housing units at Cabot and Carlisle.

Stock Experiment Has Ended

A lot of 10 bulls in loafing area kept together during entire trial. Three other lots of this size make up entire test.

Mrs. Freeda Greenan, Angus Breeder and Don Stamper, Herdsman, Ned Purtle and Ned Ray Purtle, Hereford Breeders, looking over their cattle on test. Others pictured are Arthur Wimmell and Cecil Biddle. Also overall view of facilities showing individual stalls where each bull is penned twice daily.

The Southwest Branch Experiment Station of the University of Arkansas Division of Agriculture, announces the completion of its first cooperative performance testing Registered bull program. Forty Bulls were assigned to the test by 11 purebred beef cattle producers from Arkansas. The bulls were brought to the Experiment Station Oct. 1, 1962, and given 30 days for an adjustment period to become accustomed to the ration and the environment. The bulls varied in age from 8 to 11 months at the beginning of the 154 day test Nov. 1, 1962.

The test has a two fold purpose. One so the producer can determine the type of job that his individual herd bulls are doing in his own breeding program based on the performance of each bull's offspring on test, and secondly by observing the performance record the prospective buyer will have information in addition to the individual animal's appearance.

The bulls were fed individually and the amount of feed eaten was recorded. The bulls were weighed at the end of each 28 day period so that the feed efficiency of each bull could be recorded, along with the rate of gain. The bulls were fed a low concentrate ration consisting of 33% cotton seed hulls, and other feed grains that were available. This was not a ration to get the maximum gains from each of these animals but was intended to be a safe growing ration so that the bulls could develop in a condition that would be beneficial to the producer.

The Experiment Station will hold Open House Thursday morning, April 11, at the Bull barn on the Spencer tract for all people interested in the cattle industry. The visitors will have an opportunity to see the bulls that were on test and have the data presented by personnel of the Animal Industry Department.

Thirty of the top bulls consigned to this test will be sold at Auction, at 1:30 p.m. April 11, 1963, at the Hope Livestock Commission Co., in Hope, Ark. Complete test results are available on each of these bulls. This information may be obtained by writing to the University of Arkansas, Southwest Branch Experiment Station, or to any county agent's office in Arkansas.

State Hospital Patient Killed

BENTON, Ark. (AP)—A patient at the Benton unit of the State Hospital was struck and killed by a freight train as he walked along the tracks two and a half miles south of Benton Thursday.

Lester Beckham, 63, of Near Van Buren, was identified from dental records after all 92 cars of the Missouri Pacific freight had passed over him.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Dyer, who investigated the accident, quoted engineer George Smoeder of Texarkana as saying he didn't see Beckham until the train hit him. Beckham had been a patient at the hospital off and on for a number of years and was free to come and go as he pleased, the State Hospital said.

Reds Want Cut in Foreign Aid, Rusk Tells Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk today described "those who favor gutting" the foreign aid program as actually wanting to "collaborate with the global Communist strategy."

"Their defeatist prescription should be opposed resolutely by all who want to push until we have achieved a world in which our freedom—and the freedom of all men—is secure," Rusk said.

The secretary's statement was the opening gun in the annual battle over the foreign aid program. Rusk was the first witness before the House Foreign Affairs Committee which is considering President Kennedy's request for $4.5 billion.

The committee hearings are expected to continue for six or seven weeks. Chairman Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., told reporters he anticipated that Congress would wind up cutting foreign aid to slightly below last year's level of $3.9 billion.

"There is nothing the Communists want more than to see the 'Yanks go home,'" Rusk said, "not only from Western Europe, but from the Mediterranean, South Asia, the Far East, Latin America, Africa, everywhere."

"If we Yanks come home, the Communists will begin to take over. Why any American would want to cooperate with that global Communist strategy is beyond my understanding. But that is what sharp cuts in our foreign aid program would mean."

In his wide-ranging statement, Rusk said "the free world has fared better than the Communist world during the last 12 months" but this is no cause for complacency.

"Despite their differences, Moscow and Peking remain allies," he continued. "There is not necessarily any comfort for us in competition between two centers of Communist power, each trying to prove that its method of 'burying' us is the more efficacious."

Cleveland's Newspaper Strike Ends

By LARRY FRIEDMAN
CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland's newspaper strike is over after a record 126 days. Employees of the Plain Dealer and the Cleveland Press & News were called to work today to prepare for Monday publication.

A handful of printers, mostly supervisors, returned to their jobs at the Plain Dealer at 12:22 a.m., a time which could be called the official end of the strike. It came just over an hour after the printers became the last of 11 unions to ratify contracts.

By a 339-281 vote, after a stormy three-hour debate, the printers ratified a 26-month contract their president, Clifford C. Hilpert, estimated as worth $13.55 in wages and benefits.

"We are extremely happy that this long and unfortunate strike is now over and we look forward to a Monday morning Plain Dealer," said Thomas Vail, vice president of the Forest City Publishing Co., which publishes Ohio's largest morning newspaper.

The Plain Dealer will be the first to hit the streets after a newspaper blackout that has lasted longer than any previous one in a major American city. The Teamsters' Union started it by calling 450 drivers out Nov. 29. The New York newspaper strike, which ended Sunday night, was 114 days long, and a strike of newspaper teamsters in Minneapolis last year stretched over 116 days.

"I thought the vote might be close," said Hilpert, "but deep down in my heart I felt it would go through. I must say I'm glad it's over. Our strike was successful. It was tough on a lot of us, but we were determined to stay out until we got a satisfactory agreement."

Hilpert said the printers would sign the contract today in the office of Mayor Ralph S. Locher.

The Mayor and federal mediators Gilbert J. Selin and James Macpherson aided in bringing about settlement of issues between three striking unions and the publishers. The unions were the Newspaper Guild, with 52 members, the Teamsters and printers, whose 620 members struck Jan. 28.

Basket Plant Here Sells for $32,750

The Federal Government today sold the Hope Basket Company in lieu of taxes and the entire personal and real property brought a total of $32,750.

The plant was purchased by the Red River Package Co. of Jacksonville, Texas with James L. Peacock acting as its agent. The Texas firm makes various kinds of baskets and containers.

There was no announcement from the new owners about their plans but it was believed the plant will be dismantled and removed.

The sale by the U. S. Treasury Department was handled through Fred W. Johnson, district director of the Internal Revenue Service.

Equipment was first offered in lots to about 30 buyers who bid only $15,785. It was then offered in a package deal with only two real bidders. The losing of $32,650 was offered by George Peck, Hope businessman.

The amount was apparently more than the tax deficit and the auction stopped. An auto was not sold.

Hope Basket Co. had operated in Hope over 50 years, for the last few years by Walter Verhalen. It was closed down in early 1962.

Jaycees Plan Annual Easter Egg Hunt

The annual Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Hope Jaycees will be held at Fair Park April 14, at 1:30 p.m. Thousands of Candy Easter Eggs will be hidden in sections which are marked for the different aged groups. The park is marked off into sections in order that all children may have equal opportunity.

Some of the eggs are especially marked for the awarding of prizes. The markings and the prizes will be announced later.

In addition to the Egg Hunt this year the Jaycees are sponsoring the famous Al Kelly and Miller Circus which is now touring the United States after completing a European tour. The circus features over 200 wild and tame animals and 150 performers and boasts a big top the size of a football field.

In sponsoring in circus the Jaycees will retain 50 per cent of all proceeds to support the Easter Egg Hunt and the Hope Junior and Senior Bands.

Advance tickets will be available from any Jaycee member or Junior and Senior Band Student beginning Monday, April 8th. You save 25 per cent of ticket price by buying an advance ticket. There will be only one performance of the circus on April 14th, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Advance ticket prices are students 75 cents and adults $1.50.

Survivors include his wife, Frances; a son, James Edward, a daughter, Mrs. Sue Boice all of Ypsilanti, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. L. L. Neill of Magnolia; Mrs. J. E. FEUDING BROTHER

FAMILY'S PROBLEM

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Our brother hates our mother and our five sisters.
For 28 years he sat and glowered and sulked until life at home was hades.

Now the truth has come out.
He claims our mother robbed him of $5,000 in 1935 and we put her up to it. That's the most absurd thing in the world for we were all children then. We ordered him out of the house.

Currently we hear he is broadcasting to the neighbors that our mother is a thief. She longs to see him but he won't come to her. She phoned him several times. All he would say was, "You'll never see my face again."

How can he be so cruel? We all feel so hurt. She's been a wonderful mother and certainly doesn't deserve such hatred from her only son. He's 52 now. Will he ever come to his senses? —
Loyal Daughter

Dear Loyal: Your brother is evidently older than you and your sisters. What occurred between him and his mother only they know. But no matter whether or not he speaks the truth, she is his mother and he should find it in his heart not only to forgive but to love her.

Why don't you and your sisters do a little detective work, if only to clear her name. Question her, check family letters and records, if there are any. What was he doing in 1935? Did he have $5,000 at that time? How was it earned?
Maybe your mother gave it to him, then having sudden need for the money, got it back in some way. Why, hating you all as he did, was he living at home? Keep on digging until you get at the truth then, whatever it is, confront him with the evidence; say that what's past is past, and he should start behaving like a son and not like a Boris Karloff character.

Dear Helen: I am a girl in the eighth grade who wants to go to boarding school for what would be my freshman year at High but to do so, I must earn the money. If you approve of my dream, would you suggest ways to make it come true—In-Earnest Dear In-Earnest: Of course I approve. It's a star in your crown for wanting to earn the tuition money. Have you chosen the boarding school? If not, talk your general plan over with your teachers. Remember, credits are also important. Check with the various schools (see school director's in magazines featuring them) as to credit requirements.

Send for catalogs, reading them is part of the fun. In addition to describing the activities, the catalogs will list tuition costs and living expenses. This will give you an idea of the amount you must earn. If your grades are good you might apply for a scholarship but even then you will need money for books, clothing and travel fare. Here are some of the ways you might earn it:

Watering lawns, weeding, washing cars provided you are tall and strong - armed, walking dogs, mending if you can sew, marketing for busy housewives, running errands, reading aloud to invalids. Roughly speaking, you might charge from one dollar to a dollar and half an hour, depending upon your proficiency. Raise the wage scale by degrees. Don't make the mistake of pricing yourself out of business at the start.
Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Baby Sitting," and "Turn Your Spare Time into Cash."

Agreement at Memphis Indicated

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Negotiators for the Memphis Publishing Co. and the Newspaper Guild of Memphis reached an apparent agreement last night on a proposed two-year contract, a spokesman said.

The agreement came during the sixth meeting of the two groups with federal mediator Ernest Hathaway. It is subject to approval by the executive committee of the guild local, the national executive board for the American Newspaper Guild and the membership of the local — about 350 employees of the Commercial Appeal and the Memphis Press-Scimitar.

The proposed contract calls for money increase of $4.75 per week retroactive to Dec. 11, 1962, and $4.50 effective Dec. 11 of this year.

The present wage scale, the chief issue involved in the dispute, ranges from $66 weekly for beginning reporters to $125 for the top minimum after five years' experience.

Mediation began last week after a series of meetings between the company and guild committees failed to produce an agreement. The negotiations began Oct. 10, 1962. The old contract, which expired Dec. 10, 1962, provided for extension during the negotiations.

Guild members on March 13 authorized their executive committee to call a strike "if and when it deemed such action necessary."

Groups Okay Hope Building Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House and Senate Public Works Committees approved Thursday an appropriation of $470,000 for Hope, Ark., for construction of a federal office building-post office.

The committees approved a list of 115 public buildings proposed for construction or improvements by the General Services Administration.

"Delta Kappa Gamma Key." Mrs. Marie Holt, president, conducted the business meeting. The secretary, Mrs. Helen Haynes, reported 93% attendance for the past year. A resume of the year's work was read by the president.

Committee reports were heard and several announcements made. The latter included plans to organize a new chapter in Nashville on April 9, and information regarding the state convention in Little Rock, April 19-20 was given by Mrs. Anna Mae Williams, Mrs. Florence Hyatt and Mrs. Muriel McLarty, who will take part on the program.

"Challenging Women in a Changing Social World" was the topic by Mrs. Mamie Jackson, Mrs. Helen Hays, Mrs. Hazel Prichard and Mrs. McLarty.

Refreshments were served to 21 members and four guests, Mrs. Ardell Clark, Miss Joyce Reeves, Miss Cynthia Blair and Miss Betty Denton.

Hope Star

Hope, Arkansas

With the first performance of the annual Kiwanis Minstrel being staged last night at the High School auditorium, I should like to remind you, the people of our community and the potential audience for the Minstrel tonight, of the outstanding contribution that the Kiwanis Club has made to our Parks and Recreation Program.

On K-Park alone, this civic group provided funds for acquisition of the land, lighting, fences, bleachers, concession stand, rest rooms, store rooms and playground equipment at a cost of over $11,000. Also, in addition to regularly contributing to the improvement of this facility, the Kiwanis Club has on numerous occasions, always willingly, made additional contributions to many other phases of our program, when in need of financial assistance, even though, many times, I am sure, this created a financial hardship on club members.

In closing, may I say, that to put in writing, all that this energetic, civic minded group has done for our City, by helping provide recreation for people of all ages, would be an exhaustive task. By this commendation, I am in no way attempting to take away from the very fine support that our program has received from every civic group in Hope, but only to encourage the public, at an appropriate time, to support a very worthwhile endeavor while you're enjoying a good show.

Sincerely,
Charles Gough

THE STORY: Frances Terrill says she does not know either of the men who tore her apartment apart, apparently seeking something of value.

Highy didn't come back while the cops were there. When Ballard and his crew left I felt uncomfortable at being there with two women. It wasn't a moment when they'd want a stranger around, I thought.

"Can I call your doctor for you?" I asked Frances.

"What I need is a drink, not a doctor," she said, heading for the sideboard.

I glanced at Dawn Terrill. She was over by the window. "She needs something to quiet her down."

"I'll take care of her," Frances said. "There's a pill factor in the bathroom."

I hesitated. "What's happened here doesn't seem to have anything to do with what Matt wanted to see about," I said. Certainly the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau didn't carry on investigations in this manner.

"He wanted you to take a whack at General Hooper?"

"I don't know enough to answer that, Mrs. Terrill. It may be he'll get his owner's license in spite of Hooper. Then there's no point in it. But I'm curious. When he brought me here Matt said it was so I'd understand why he wanted to get into racing. Why does he?"

She turned away. "If I were to say to Matthew, offhand, that I'd like a shrimp cocktail cooled in snow from the top of Mount Everest, he'd climb the mountain for the snow."

"And you mentioned, casually, that you'd like to own horses?"

"I grew up with them," she said, taking a long swallow from her glass. "My father. He owned them. I spent my childhood following his horses around the circuit—Churchill Downs, Hialeah, Pimlico, Belmont, Saratoga. It was a fun time in my life. I happened to mention to Matthew one day that horses were the one real, untarnished pleasure I could remember. That was all I needed to say. He's going to own horses."

"He thinks you might marry him if he made the kind of life for you really want?"

"Could I make any man happy?"

"Of course you could."

"The way I am?" she insisted, almost fiercely.

It was pointless to keep probing at this wounded woman—wounded in so many ways.

The elevator man, obviously eaten up with curiosity, was quick to tell me that Matt Highy had left the building. He'd tried to get a description of the two men from the elevator man and the doorman. Neither one of them had been helpful.

"Hundreds of people coming and going all day. You don't notice them in particular unless there's something odd or special about them."

"And there was nothing?"

"I told the cops and Mr. Highy—nothing. They must have looked like they belonged here or I'd have noticed. Which means they weren't dressed like bums or something."

"Mr. Highy says where he was going?"

"Not to me. Brother, I noticed him, though. Three years he'd been visiting Mrs. Terrill regular—if you know what I mean, Always smiling and pleasant. I was scared of him the way he looked just now. White hot!"

This strange and apparently meaningless raid on Frances Terrill's apartment had nothing to do with me as Highy's legal representative. A lot of queer things go on in this city, and when you look for motives you don't find them.

There wasn't much I could do that evening about Highy's other problems — his license to race Thoroughbreds. It was nearly seven o'clock when I hit the street. The offices of TRTB would be closed now. I wasn't going to make a direct pitch to the State Racing Commission without talking to my boss.

"Can Highy stand the back-lash?" I asked Jake Kramer on the phone later that evening.

"He has no criminal record," Jake said.

"You think the raid on the Terrill's apartment might have been the General's doing?"

"There's a curious thing about the hide-bound do-gooders in our society, Corny. They're just like the Communists without realizing it. The end justifies the means. If Hooper thought that by breaking the law he could get evidence against a man he honestly believes shouldn't be in racing, I think he'd break the law. In his kind of mind the law is only to control bad people. Good people are entitled to break it if it will help to achieve what they think are moral ends."

"Highy just wants to please the woman he loves," I said.

"Love is a dirty word to a man like Hooper," Jake said. "Nose around a little, Corny. And warn Matt when you see him that his greatest danger is probably that Hooper will throw mud at the woman."

CHRYSLER / AMERICA'S NEWEST PACE-SETTERS

Sports spectacular — with a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty†

When the Chrysler 300 sets out to do a performance job, it does it with flying colors. It's been chosen (with complete justification) to pace the field at the famed Indianapolis "500" on May 30th. It's already known as the No. 1 American rally car. Successes include top awards in the Continental Divide, Daniel Boone and Abominable Snow rallies.

With a 300—crisp, custom styling, bucket seat luxury plus the power and handling of a true performance car are all yours to enjoy. And, there's the most surprising extra of all—your Chrysler dealer's 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty. Little wonder Chrysler's setting the hot pace wherever performance cars are being talked about.

Value spectacular — with a crisp, custom look

When Chrysler sets out to pack a full-size Newport with value, others take a back seat. Here's value that surprises many who figure the crisp, custom beauty of Chrysler ought to be priced much higher. Consider the solid way this beauty is built. The complete way it's powered and equipped with a Firebolt

V-8 that performs on regular. Torsion-bar suspension that levels the roughest roads. Expensive decorator fabrics. Six-way adjustable seats. Thick, door-to-door carpeting. Then there's America's longest and best new-car warranty, 5 years or 50,000 miles. Chrysler Newport—only $2964.* See your dealer today.

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price of Newport 4-door sedan, exclusive of state and local taxes, if any, and destination charges. White wall tires extra.

Sanford Loses 17th of 24 for Giants

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
Cleveland and San Francisco repair crews were working today on Floyd Weaver's damaged elbow and Jack Sanford's injured knee while Umpire John Rice was making a full report on the tremors that shook Modesto, Calif., in the exhibition season's first serious beanball incident.

Sanford, a 24-game winner for the National League champion Giants last season, was the focal point as San Francisco went down to its 17th loss in 26 games, 11-7 to the Indians Thursday.

Sanford started the rumbly in the fourth inning while pitching to Weaver, Cleveland's rookie hurler. The third pitch plunked Weaver in the right elbow. Plate Umpire Rice immediately warned Sanford, which brought San Francisco Manager Al Dark hustling out of the dugout.

Dark asked why Rice had not warned Weaver when Willie Mays was sprawling in the third inning, then apparently followed with a remark about American League umpires and was ejected.

In the fifth inning, Sonny Siebert, Weaver's replacement, drew a warning from Rice when he sailed a pitch over Sanford's head. Rice said he would send a full report to Commissioner Ford Frick.

"I warned both Sanford and Siebert about beanballs," he said. "I didn't warn Weaver, because I didn't think he was intentionally throwing at Mays."

After the tremors had subsided, it became evident that Sanford's pride also must have suffered. He was tagged for all 11 runs, four homers—by Woodie Held, Tito Francona, Max Alvis and Ellis Burton—and has given up 13 runs in the last innings.

A trio of comeback pitchers, Lew Burdette of Milwaukee, Luis Arroyo of the New York Yankees and Cincinnati's Al Worthington again turned in impressive performances.

Burdette brought his earned run average to 0.67 as the Braves whipped Philadelphia 9-2 at West Palm Beach. Arroyo lowered his ERA to 0.69 while the Yankees shut out Pittsburgh 2-0 at Fort Lauderdale and Worthington reduced his to 0.43 as the Reds lost to the Chicago White Sox 9-5 at Macon, Ga.

In other games, St. Louis walloped Minnesota 12-3 at St. Peters, the Chicago Cubs defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-2 at Mesa, Detroit edged the New York Mets 3-2 in 10 innings at Lakeland, Washington nipped Baltimore 4-3 at Miami and Houston downed the Los Angeles Angels 5-2 at Bakersfield, Calif.

Plant Told to Stop Threats

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board has ordered the Remington Rand Corp. plant at Searcy, Ark., to stop discouraging membership in the International Association of Machinists (AFL-CIO).

In an order released today, the NLRB affirmed a recommendation made by Trial Examiner Stanley Gilbert after a hearing in Searcy July 24, 1962 on a charge filed by the union.

The NLRB ordered plant officials to stop threatening employees with economic reprisals or closing of the plant and engaging in surveillance of organizational activities of employees.

It also told Remington to offer a worker reinstatement to the same or substantially equivalent position from which he was demoted as the result of union activity.

Pettit Paces Hawks to First Win

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"After the heart-breaking loss we had the other night," said Coach Harry Gallatin of the St. Louis Hawks, "we still figured we could beat this club and I think we proved it. I think we'll go all the way now if Zelmo (Beatty) can keep up the good work."

The proof, according to Gallatin, was the 125-112 facing the Hawks handed the Los Angeles Lakers Thursday night in the Western Division final of the National Basketball Association playoffs in St. Louis. The Lakers still hold a 2-1 lead in the best-of-7 set heading into the fourth game in St. Louis Saturday night.

One of the Hawks' defeats was a heartbreaker Tuesday in Los Angeles when the Lakers outscored the Hawks, 9-0, in the last 100 seconds for a 101-99 triumph. The difference Thursday was rookies Beatty and Charlie Vaughn who shook off uninspiring performances in the first two games when they managed only 12 points between them. Thursday night, Beatty had 21 and led both teams with 15 rebounds and Vaughn noticed 23, hitting 10 of 16 from the field.

Bob Pettit's 33 points paced the Hawks, who used a 43-point third quarter for a 93-76 bulge and then held off the Lakers.

Porkers Get in First Day of Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas Razorbacks enter their second day of spring training here today minus two men plagued by injuries suffered last year.

Coach Frank Broyles sent the Porker candidates through 2½ hours of conditioning drills Thursday.

Jim Williams, a letterman tackle from Forrest City, and Bill Knight of Little Rock, a red-shirt end last year, were forced out of the first day session.

Each had an injury to the right thigh — Williams pulled a muscle and Knight a dislocation, said that doctors are going to probe to determine whether a third surgery it has developed.

It is too early to gauge the competitive sessions, Broyles said, "because there were so many new boys at new positions."

The Porkers take a three-day training during the Easter holidays. They will have their first scrimmage and practice on a week from Saturday.

Major Leagues Prepare for Opening Mon.

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees and Los Angeles Dodgers were the preseason betting favorites to meet in the World Series as the 20 major league teams prepared to open the 1963 season with two games next Monday and nine more the following day.

The latest odds from Las Vegas makes the Yankees a prohibitive 1-3 favorite to capture the American League pennant. The betting gentry sees a much tougher fight in the National. The Dodgers are a 2-1 choice followed by the San Francisco Giants at 12-5 and the Cincinnati Reds at 4-1.

All teams will start from scratch next week when some 350,000 persons are expected to attend the two-day openers.

Washington and Cincinnati will share the spotlight Monday in their traditional openers a day in advance of the rest.

Some 47,000 fans, including President John F. Kennedy, will fill D.C. Stadium in Washington to see the Senators open their drive to escape the American League cellar against the Baltimore Orioles.

The President will throw out the first ball. Thereafter the pitching will be in the hands of expected southpaw starters Don Rudolph of Washington and Steve Barber of Baltimore. Rudolph had an 8-10 record last year and Barber was 9-6.

A capacity of 30,000 will be on hand in Cincinnati the same afternoon where the Reds' left-handed ace Jim O'Toole (16-13) will be opposed by right-hander Earl Francis (9-8) of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

All teams with the exception of the Senators and Orioles will be in action Tuesday. The schedule: American League—New York at Kansas City, Chicago at Detroit, Boston at Los Angeles, Cleveland at Minnesota.

National League—Los Angeles at Boston, Milwaukee at Pittsburgh, St. Louis at New York, Cincinnati at Philadelphia (night).

Golf's Old Guard Is Chuckling

By MERCER BAILEY

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Golf's old guard is chuckling. Some of the graybeards showed the younger "big three" a thing or two in the opening round of the Masters golf tournament.

Instead of Palmer, Player or Nicklaus setting a fast pace going into today's second round, it was Bo Wininger, 40, and Mike Souchak, 35, on top with 69s, three under par. And only one stroke, were veterans Sam Snead, 50, Ed Furgol, 46, and Jay Hebert, 40.

With three testing rounds still to go, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus—the dominant trio in golf today—have plenty of time to pull out a victory. But, for one round at least, they had to take a back seat.

Palmer, 33, the defending champion shooting for a fourth Masters title, had to settle for a 2-over-par 74. So did 23-year-old Nicklaus.

Player, 27, and the only foreigner ever to win a Masters, remained well in contention with an opening 71, a score he shared with George Bayer.

Amateur Charlie Coe an oil broker from Oklahoma City and 2-time U.S. Amateur king, tied at par 72 with Billy Maxwell.

No one else among the 86 starters managed to match the sprawling Augusta National Golf Club course par of 36-36-72. Tricky, gusty winds and hard greens were major factors in keeping the scores high. Approach shots would hit the baked putting surfaces and bound away.

Perhaps the largest opening day crowd in history milled over the beautiful, 6,850-yard course which grand slam champion Bob Jones helped design. A unofficial estimate put the crowd at 25,000.

After today's round, the field will be trimmed to the low 44 plus ties—except that anyone within 10 shots of the leader qualifies for the final 36 holes.

Dog Has More Influence Than People

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Seven million people in the Rocky Mountain states have less influence than one dog in San Diego in determining what will be heard on radio.

At least that's the picture that emerged Wednesday as a House Commerce subcommittee continued its investigation of broadcast rating services.

It seems the dog's mistress is one of the listeners used by the A. C. Nielsen Co., biggest of the rating services, as part of its sample "universe" by which it determines what the nation is watching or listening to. And she leaves her radio on all day while she is out so her dog can enjoy it.

But the 7 million people in the mountain time zone have no place in Nielsen's universe because they live too far apart and it would cost too much to sample their radio and television tastes.

Rep. Donald G. Brozman, R-Colo., expressing dismay that nobody in his state exists as far as Nielsen is concerned, tried to get them to leave out the 7 million people in New York City instead of the mountain area folk.

Warren Cordell, Nielsen's chief statistical officer, said he would have to make a survey to see what the difference would be between a broadcast universe without New York and one without the mountain time zone before he could comment.

Pressed by Brozman for a reply, he said it probably wouldn't make much difference. But he made no promises.

Fire Fighting

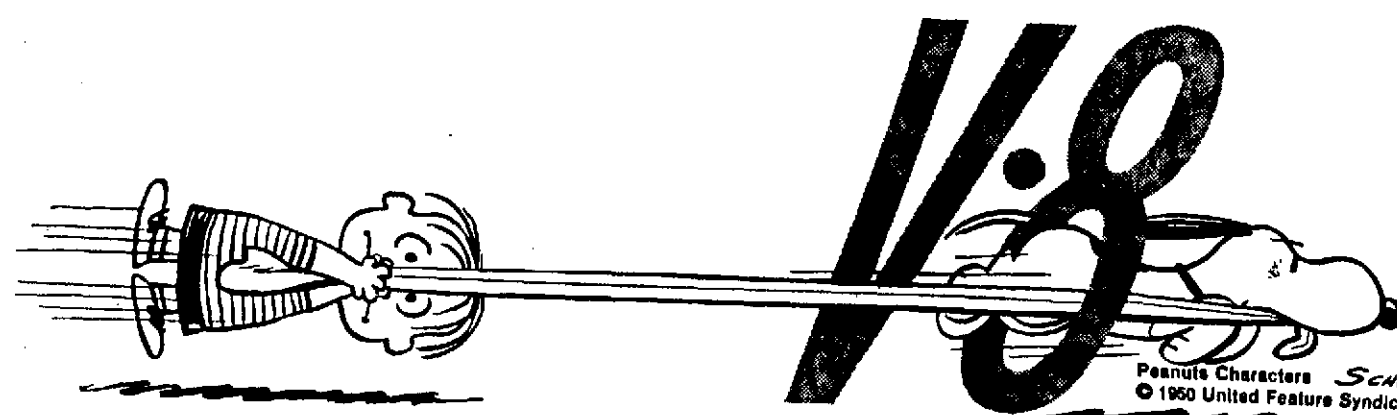

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Forest rangers have placed metal-clad boxes containing fire-fighting equipment in the Big Creek Watershed area as a means of cutting down on fire losses. Since Feb. 1 there have been 1,700 acres of woodlands burned in the area, Charles Purvis, state forest ranger, said.
